Food/Drug/Pet Recall: Yes To, Inc.

Yes To Inc. has issued a voluntary recall of all lots of its Grapefruit Vitamin C Glow-Boosting Unicorn Paper Mask in response to complaints of skin irritation and redness. The company has recently seen reports on social media that children have used the Grapefruit Vitamin C Glow-Boosting Unicorn Paper Mask unfortunately in skin irritation. It has also received similar reports from adults who have used the product. As such, the firm has decided to pull this particular product off of the shelves while it investigates the complaints that it has received and seen online.

The Grapefruit Vitamin C Glow Boosting Unicorn Paper Mask is distributed nationwide in numerous retail and on-line outlets. No other Yes To products are included in this recall.

Customers can return the product to the retailer where purchased, if it has not been used, for a refund. Or, if you have already used the product, contact Yes To at customercare@yesto.com or by phone at 888.929.3786 on Monday - Friday between 9am - 3pm PST

No action is required of local health departments at this time for either of these recalls. If any requests for assistance are received from FDA, the Public Health and Food Protection Program will contact you.
