

Clifton recycles oil

AUGUST 28, 2015 LAST UPDATED: FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 2015, 12:31 AM
CLIFTON JOURNAL

Sustainability in action — Ilia Kristo, laborer/mechanics helper at the Clifton Department of Public Works crushes more than 100 oil filters (metal) totaling 740 pounds. The metal was recycled and the used oil extracted from the crusher will be used to heat the city garage. The oil filter crusher is one of the new innovations of the City's Recycling initiatives.