Clifton Arts Center & Sculpture Park
About Us

A triple treat awaits cultural appreciation enthusiasts at the Clifton Arts Center. Enjoy art, architecture and history. Explore artworks, sculpture and historic barns.

Both the Arts Center and the Clifton Sculpture Park are part of the Clifton Municipal Complex, which is on the National Register of Historic Sites. Opened in 2000, the Arts Center is housed in two barns joined by a modern atrium. More than 100 art shows have been exhibited to Clifton residents and communities at large.

From the footprints of the animals in the early 1900s to the present day footsteps of artists, art appreciators and residents, the Arts Center continues to bring a wide array of art and culture to all.

Art Receptions, Concerts, Gallery & History Talks, Cultural and Outreach Events are offered.
